

SPANISH CULTURAL EVENTS AT LOYOLA

Sunday, October 10--

Spanish lecture: "Teatro español ayer y hoy"

Jerónimo López Mozo, Spanish Dramatist

3:00 p.m.

Octavia I (Danna Center)

Reception following

Monday, October 11--

Cultural Night from Spain: Music and Theatre

John Lawrence: Spanish classical and flamenco guitar music

Bilingual dramatic reading of the one-act play,

"El escritor y su biógrafo" /

"The Author and his Biographer",

by Jerónimo López Mozo

Loyola Drama and Speech Dept. students,

Director, David Dahlgren

7:30 p.m.

Nunemaker (Monroe Hall, 3rd floor)

Reception following, in lobby outside the auditorium, 2nd floor

Tuesday, October 12—

Theatre Bla-bla

Informal discussion with the Spanish dramatist

Jerónimo López Mozo

12:30 p.m.

MA 306

All events are free and open to the public

Events sponsored by—

Biever Guest Lecture Series of Loyola University,

The Consulate General of Spain in New Orleans,

Sociedad Española of New Orleans,

Modern Foreign Languages & Literatures Department, Loyola, and Drama and Speech

Department, Loyola

For more information, contact Dr. Eileen J. Doll, 865-3844